THE FIRST QUESTION OF THE HEIDELBERG CATECHISM.

What is thy only comfort in life and in death ?

Ans. That I, with body and soul, both in life and in death, am not my own, but belong to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ, who, with His precious blood, hath fully satisfied for all my sins, and redeemed me from all the power of the Devil ; and so preserves me, that, without the will of my Father in Heaven, not a hair can fall from my head ; yea, that all things must work together for my salvation. Wherefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me heartily willing and ready henceforth to live unto him.

The First Question of the Westminster Shorter Catechism.

What is the chief end of man ?

Ans. Man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy him forever.

REMARKABLE DAYS IN THE HISTORY OF THE REFORMED CHURCH.

[Year before last we gave a collection of some of the remarkable dates and days in the history of the Reformed Church, reaching down to the death of Ulric Zwingli, on the battle-field at Cappel, October 11, 1531. Last year we continued the series from the death of Zwingli to the death of Calvin in 1564. But we gave only those relating to the history of the Reformed Church in Switzerland, Germany, France and Holland. This year we give those for the same period, of thirty-three years, relating to Scotland, England, Hungary, Bohemia, Poland and Italy. Next year we purpose to continue the same from the year 1564 onward.]

- 1400. A portion of the exiled Waldenses seek a refuge in Hungary, and diffuse the evangelical doctrine there. The followers of John Huss also settle in large numbers in Hungary, found congregations and build churches.
- 1522. The gospel is openly preached in numerous cities of Hungary, and the Reformation spreads rapidly.
- 1522. The evangelical theologians Grynaeus and Winsheim are appointed professors in the University of Ofen.
- 1523. Impelled by the pope, King Louis of Hungary publishes the first edict of persecution.
- 1523. The city of Elbing, in Poland, declares itself on the side of the Reformation.
- 1523. In Dantzic, Poland, evangelical preachers are appointed in the churches.
- 1525. The king of Hungary issues the second edict of persecution, commanding the rooting out of the evangelicals.
- 1526. Tyndale and Fryth banished from England, translate the New Testament into English at Antwerp, and the same is widely circulated in England by German merchants.
- 1527. Henry VIII. of England asks Pope Clement III. to declare his marriage with Catharine invalid, in order that he might marry Anne Boleyn.
- 1527. Patrick Hamilton, the first preacher and martyr of the Scottish Reformation, commences openly to preach the gospel. He was a great-grandson of James III. Archbishop Beaton, not venturing to attack him openly, deceitfully induced him to come to the castle of St. Andrews, on pretense of wishing to confer with him in reference to the necessity of a Reformation. In the night he was apprehended; the next day (twenty-ninth of February, 1528) on account of his open confession of the evangelical faith, he was condemned to death at once. He was burnt at the stake. While the flames raged around him he was heard to say: "Lord, how long shall darkness cover this land? How long wilt thou suffer this tyranny of men? Lord Jesus, receive my spirit."

- 1527. Under the influence of the German Reformation especially the writings of Zwingli, the Reformation spreads into many parts of Italy, so that from this year on there are evangelical sermons delivered in many cities, and Cardinal Campeggio expressed it as his judgment that this "pest" would rage yet worse in Italy than in Germany. This was the case especially in Ferrara, Modena, Venice and Bologna.
- 1528.—December 14. Death of King James V. of Scotland, leaving his daughter, the celebrated Mary Stuart, only seven days old. James Hamilton became regent.
- 1529.—February 8. Mathias Devay, the Reformer of Hungary, returns from Wittemberg, and has great success in winning both nobles and people for the gospel.
- 1530. In Thorn (Poland) evangelical sermons are openly preached, without interference.
- 1532. The Confession of the Bohemian brethren is translated by Weisz into German, and published in Zurich.
- 1534.—July 9. Henry VIII. of England declares the papal jurisdiction in England at an end, and Parliament confirms the same by the Act of Supremacy (November 3, 1534), making the king "the only supreme head in earth of the Church of England." Henry did not dream of a Reformation. The evangelicals (John Lambert, in 1538, and others) were burnt at the stake, as well as the adherents of the pope.
- 1534. King Sigismund of Poland forbids all appointment of preachers who have studied in Wittemberg, and in 1542 forbids all visitation of Germany, in order to stop the Reformation.
- 1538. King Ferdinand of Hungary appoints a public religious discussion, in which the evangelicals gain a triumph.
- 1538. Cranmer causes the Bible to be translated into English, and widely diffused, and by a convocation it is declared to be "the sole law of religion."
- 1538. A persecution is commenced against the Protestants in England; over five hundred persons are imprisoned; among them a number of bishops.
- 1539. The learned theologian, Count Riva, in Hungary, declares his adhesion to the doctrine of the Reformed Church.
- 1541. Valer is apprehended in Spain, by the Inquisition, and dies in prison.

REFORMED CHURCH ALMANAC.

FEBRUARY.

Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. James v. 7.

1542. Peter Martyr, Ochino and Tremellio are driven out of Italy through the Inquisition.
1543. The Reformer, Devay, in Hungary, decides for the Reformed doctrine.
1543. A Protestant congregation is organized in Pisa, Italy.
- 1544-64. A terrible persecution of the Protestants is waged throughout Italy by the Inquisition and the pope, especially in Venice, Milan, Mantua, Parma, and among the Waldenses in Calabria.
1544. A new Reformer arises in Scotland, Geo. Wishart, who works with wonderful effect in open meetings. He dies a martyr, March 1, 1546.
1545. Formal attempts are ventured upon to organize the Reformed Church of Hungary. A Synod is held in Erdadt.
1546. John Knox (born 1505, educated in Glasgow and St. Andrews, led by the study of Augustine and Jerome, and the sermons of Wishart, to embrace the Reformation) appears on the scene, and has numerous disputations with Catholic priests.
- 1546.—March 1. Wishart, in Scotland, dies at the stake. His last words out of the flames were: "Redeemer of the world, have mercy upon me. Father, in thy hands I commit my spirit."
- 1546.—May 27. Cardinal Beaton dies at the hand of certain nobles—a just judgment of God for having unjustly condemned Wishart to death.
- 1547.—April. Knox, in Scotland, flees from the Regent Hamilton, to St. Andrews, where he is chosen assistant preacher to Rough.
- 1547.—July 31. St. Andrews capitulates to the regent and the French. Knox is sent to the galleys in France. For nineteen months he here suffered untold miseries. The galley-slaves were kept almost naked, chained fast, doomed to the severest labor, to poor diet and inhuman punishment.
- 1547.—January 29. Death of Henry VIII. of England, leaving as his successor Edward VI., only ten years old. Somerset becomes regent, and Edward is educated a Protestant.
1547. Cranmer calls Peter Martyr, Tremellio and Ochino (fugitives from the continent) to professorships in Oxford.
1548. Lasky goes to England, on invitation of King Edward, to take charge of three congregations of fugitive Reformed families from Holland, Flanders, France and Italy.
1548. Death of King Sigismund I. of Poland; succeeded by Sigismund II., who favors the Reformation. On the recommendation of Calvin he calls Lasky back to his fatherland.
- 1548.—January. Calvin dedicates his commentaries on Timothy to the Lord Protector of England, who warmly favors the Reformed faith.
- 1548.—October 22. Calvin writes the Lord Protector a letter, urging him to go forward in the reform of the English Church.
1548. At the solicitation of Peter Martyr, Cranmer invites to England John Lasky, Polanus, Alexandre, Utenhaven and Dryander.
1548. The Bohemian brethren are terribly persecuted, and banished from Bohemia. A large portion go to Posen (in Poland). After ten months King Sigismund banishes them and they go to Prussia, where they are persecuted by the orthodox Lutherans. They again return to Poland, under the protection of certain Polish counts. Thus arose sixty congregations, to which many Polish nobles united themselves. Another portion maintained themselves in secret in Bohemia and Moravia.
- 1549.—October. Parliament adopts the Book of Common Prayer in England.
- 1549.—February. Martin Bucer goes to England on invitation of King Edward and Cranmer, to aid in the English Reformation, becomes professor in Cambridge, assists in the revision of the Prayer Book (some of the most beautiful parts of that book are from his pen), and dies in England in 1551.
- 1549.—Knox, released from the galleys, returns to England, becomes one of the chaplains to King Edward, takes part in the work of revising the Prayer Book, seeks in vain from Cranmer the introduction of Church discipline.
1550. The evangelical professors in Ferrara (Italy) are driven away, and the Reformed congregation is rooted out.
- 1552.—April 6. In consequence of the correspondence between the young King Edward and Calvin, and Calvin's repeated letters to Somerset and Cranmer, the Book of Common Prayer is revised, and a Confession of Faith (forty-two articles) adopted, which embodies the Reformed doctrine.
- 1553.—July 6. Death of the young and much lamented King Edward VI., at the age of sixteen years. Many believed that he was poisoned by the Papists.
- 1553.—December 8. Lasky, Micronius and Utenhaven, with one hundred and seventy-five Reformed fugitives from England, are driven out of Denmark in the middle of winter, by the ultra-Lutherans, at the instigation of Westphal.
1553. When Bloody Mary ascended the throne of MARCH.

He that ploweth should plow in hope. 1 Cor. ix. 10.

- England, Knox, with thousands of the persecuted, fled to the continent, and became preacher to the English congregation (of fugitives) in Geneva. Although Calvin was four years younger, he placed himself under him "as a father." Here Knox first completed his theological studies.
- 1553-58. A terrible persecution of the Protestants rages in England, under Mary. In this period two hundred and eighty-eight were burnt at the stake (five bishops, twenty-one ministers, nine gentlemen, eighty-four mechanics, one hundred farmers, twenty-six wives, twenty widows, nine young women, two boys, two children). Besides, twelve were smothered under dung-heaps, and sixteen died of starvation in prisons. Many thousands were mutilated by the cutting off of their ears, noses, etc.
1554. The fugitive Reformed driven out of England by Bloody Mary, out of Denmark and North Germany by the Lutherans, settle in Frankfort (Germany), and find a permanent asylum there.
1554. Knox becomes preacher to the English congregation (of fugitives) in Frankfort, Germany.
1554. A severe persecution rages in England under Queen Mary.
1555. In the autumn of this year Knox suddenly returned to Scotland, where the persecution was at its height, preached in many places, and induced the nobles (those who were inclined to the Reformation) to repudiate the mass from now on entirely. Persecuted, he again fled to Geneva, from whence he addressed a powerful appeal to the nobles and congregation.
1556. Lasky becomes superintendent of the Reformed Church in Poland, and employs the evening of his life in translating, with other learned men, the Scriptures into the Polish tongue.
1557. The Magyars, in a Synod in Debreczin, subscribe the Second Helvetic Confession.
1557. The Reformed in Scotland have now organized formally into congregations, with elders and deacons. Their services are mostly held in secret. The Scottish nobles now send a letter to Knox, demanding his return to his fatherland. He came as far as Dieppe, and writes a letter to the nobles, urging them to a steadfast defense of the gospel.
- 1557.—December 30. Inspired by the letter of Knox, the nobles now subscribe a document (in Edinburgh) which is known as the "First Covenant." In this they vow to God to contend until death for Christ and his congregation. They united themselves as a congregation of the Lord, and solemnly renounced the congregation of Satan and all superstition and idolatry. They did not wish to take the way of force, but begged the queen to allow the religious services in the land to be held in English, and that the Reformed preachers be allowed to hold private services unhindered, provisionally, until Parliament could be assembled to decide. She granted this, and now Reformed services commenced everywhere, in castles and houses of the dukes, barons and lairds.
1557. The Bible is translated into Spanish (printed in Germany, and also in Geneva), and is widely diffused. Depositories of Protestant writings are established in Seville and Medina.
1558. At the Synod of Czenzar, in Hungary, a Hungarian Confession of Faith is adopted, and is published in 1570.
- 1558.—August 28. Walter Mill, a preacher eighty-two years old, lately returned, is apprehended and burnt at the stake. The populace murmured loudly, and his death was really the death of Popery in Scotland. It aroused incredible bitterness in the whole land.
1558. Elizabeth ascends the throne of England, establishes the Reformed religion, and during a long reign of forty-five years confirms the Protestant character of the nation.
1559. Many bishops and priests in Hungary pass openly over to the Reformed Church, and the Reformation penetrates in every direction.
- 1559.—March 1. A provincial council is called in Scotland by the queen regent. The Reformed now comprised about the half of the population, and handed in a plan of reformation, and the papal party also sent in a petition for reform. But the clerical party refused, and the queen issued a proclamation, forbidding preaching by the Reformed.
- 1559.—May 2. In the very crisis of matters in Scotland Knox suddenly lands at Leith (aged fifty-four). The queen is frightened. Knox hastens to the Lords at Perth, preaches a powerful sermon against the idolatry in the mass and images. The queen assembles troops, and threatens to level Perth with the ground. The nobles gather a large army. The queen again becomes frightened and promises religious liberty.
- 1559.—May 31. The nobles of Scotland, before separating at Perth, renew their covenant (called the "Second Covenant"). Scarcely had they separated before the queen again broke her word,

APRIL.

No man having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God. Luke ix. 62.

- took possession of Perth, and reinstated the Romish worship.
- 1559.—October 21. The Lords in Parliament depose the queen regent, but take the oath of allegiance to the young Queen Mary.
- 1560.—August 1. Parliament assembles in Edinburgh. The Reformed ministers hand in the "First Scotch Confession of Faith." Only five nobles are found to oppose the adoption of the same.
- 1560.—August 24. Parliament solemnly declares the papal jurisdiction in Scotland at an end, and forbids the mass. Thus Scotland became now legally a Reformed land. Knox was stationed in Edinburgh; seven other distinguished men were stationed in the seven largest cities, and the remainder of the country was divided into five districts, each with a "superintendent," who was to travel over his district, and oversee the "readers" that were appointed to explain the gospel to the people.
- 1560.—December 20. A free Synod is called in Edinburgh, and prepares and publishes the "First Book of Discipline."
- 1561.—August 19. Mary Stuart arrives in Edinburgh from France, and ascends the throne of Scotland.
- 1564-72. Under Pope Pius V. the persecution of Protestants in Italy is continued. In Rome, every day, more or less persons are either burnt, hung, or decapitated.
1570. The Reformed congregations in Seville and Valladolid (Spain) are destroyed by the Inquisition. Thousands die the death of martyrs; others find a refuge in France, Switzerland, Palatinate, England and Hussia.
1570. The Psalms are prepared in the Hungarian language for public worship. For catechisms they use, in part, Calvin's, in part a Hungarian catechism, prepared by Batisius. At a later date these were supplanted by the Heidelberg Catechism.
1575. The whole of the Calixtines, in Bohemia, confess the doctrine of the Reformed Church.
1576. The number of Reformed congregations in Hungary is now about one thousand; each with an evangelical preacher. Their chief theologians are in constant correspondence with Beza and Bullinger.
- 1609.—June. King Rudolph of Bohemia feels himself compelled to give the adherents of the Bohemian Confession full equality of rights with the Papists, a separate Consistory, and control of the University in Prague.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

A CHILD'S EVENING PRAYER.

JESUS, tender Shepherd, hear me;
Bless thy little lamb to-night;
Through the darkness be thou near me,
Keep me safe till morning light.
All this day thy hand hath led me,
And I thank thee for thy care.
Thou hast clothed me, warmed and fed me,
Listen to my evening prayer:
Let my sins be all forgiven;
Bless my friends I love so well;
Take me, when I die, to heaven,
Happy there with thee to dwell. Amen.

A CHILD'S MORNING PRAYER.

O God, I thank thee that the night
In peace and rest has passed away;
And that I see my Father's smile,
In this fair light that makes it day.
Be thou my guide, and let me live,
As under thy all-seeing eye;
Supply my wants, my sins forgive,
And make me happy when I die. Amen.

THE SNOW-PRAYER.—A little girl went out to play one day in the fresh new snow, and when she came in she said: "Mamma, I couldn't help praying when I was out at play." "What did you pray for, my dear?" "I prayed the snow-prayer, mamma, that I learned once in the Sunday-school: 'Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.'" What a beautiful prayer! And here is a sweet promise to go with it: "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow." And what can wash them white, cleanse them from every stain of sin? The Bible answers: "They have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

SONG OF THE SEWING-MACHINE.

HURRY and scurry and bustle away,
Plenty of work may be done in a day!
Whirl-a-whirl, whirl-a-whirl, clack-a-clack-click,
On I go always, through thin and through thick;
Click-a-click-clack, clack-a-clack-click:
Noisy I am, but at nothing I stick:
Heavy and strong with a thump and a whack,
Whirl-a-whirl, whirl-a-whirl, click-a-click-clack.

MAY.

He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth. Ps. civ. 14.

JOHNNIE'S WISH.

"Oh dear, I wish, and I wish, and I wish!"
Said Johnnie one day, putting on a long face;
"I wish I could be at the head of my class,
And beat everybody in school at a race!"

Ah, Johnnie, you've hit it; we all wish just so,
We grown-up children: and make a wry face
If some one gets past us. But don't you know
Somebody must lose in the life-long race?

And, Johnnie, what if poor Bennie should fall,
Who is lame, you know, in both race and class,
When he tried so hard: don't you think it would grieve
If he had to stand back and let you pass?

Ah, Johnnie, 'tis well to be eager and brave,
But don't be selfish, my dear little man;
You'll find many a Bennie along through life,
And, my boy, you must help them all you can.

THE FAVORITE CHILD.

WHICH of five snowdrops would the moon
Think whitest, if the moon could see?
Which of five rosebuds flushed with June,
Were reddest to the mother-tree?
Which of five birds that play one tune
On their soft-shining throats, may be Chief singer? Who will answer me?

Would not the moon know, if around
One snowdrop any shadow lay?
Would not the rose-tree, if the ground
Should let one blossom droop a day?
Does not the one bird take a sound
Into the cloud when caught away,
Finer than all the sounds that stay?

Oh, little quiet boy of mine,
Whose yellow head lies languid here—
Poor yellow head, its restless shine
Brightened the butterflies last year!
Whose pretty hands may intertwine
With paler hands, unseen, but near:
You are my favorite now, I fear!

LITTLE Jessie had been eating currants, contrary to mamma's order. Her mother said: "You know you were forbidden to eat currants!" "But, mother, Satan tempted me!" "Why didn't you say, 'Get thee behind me, Satan?'" "I did say, 'Get thee behind me, Satan;' and he went and got behind me, and pushed me right into the currant-bushes."

RIDDLE FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

I HAVE two hands and yet can hold nothing; have no feet and yet am always running; never speak, though often heard. Behead me and leave a fastening. Curtail me twice and you have left an exclamation.

AN ARITHMETICAL PUZZLE.

A POOR man died, leaving his three sons a small sum of money in silver dollars—directing that the oldest should have one-half of the whole; the second son one-third of the whole; and the youngest son one-ninth of the whole. But as neither of them could take his portion in an exact number of dollars, they referred the matter of division to the probate judge, laying before him the money left by their father. The judge seeing the impossibility of a division, took from his drawer a bag of dollars, from which he added to the pile on the table a number sufficient to enable each son to take his specified portion in an even number of dollars. The oldest took one-half of the increased number; the second took one-third of the whole; the youngest took one-ninth of the whole, the amount of their portions being the precise sum bequeathed to them by their father, leaving on the table just what the judge had taken from his bag.

What was the sum left by the father; and how much did the judge add to the same?

JULY.

The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest. Luke x. 2.

BE THOROUGH.

WHATSOEVER you find to do,
Do it, boys, with all your might;
Never be a little true,
Or a little in the right.
Trifles even
Lead to heaven;
Trifles make the life of man;
So in all things
Be as thorough as you can.

Let no one speck their surface dim—
Spotless truth and honor bright!
I'd not give a fig for him
Who says any lie is white!
He who falters
Twists or alters
Little atoms when we speak,
May deceive me,
But believe me,
To himself he is a sneak.

THE FLIGHT OF THE BIRDS.

O wise little birds, how do you know
The way to go
Southward and northward, to and fro?

Far up in the ether piped they;
"We but obey
One who calleth us far away.

"He calleth and calleth year by year,
Now there, now here;
Ever He maketh the way appear."

Dear little birds, He calleth me
Who calleth ye;
Would that I might as trusting be!

ANECDOTES.

An old farmer said of his clergyman, whose sermons lacked point: "Ah, yes, he's a good man, but he will rake with the teeth upward."

A devoutly pious man, who lived some six miles from the house of worship, once complained to his pastor of the distance he had to go to attend public worship. "Never mind," said the good minister; "remember that every Sabbath you have the privilege of preaching a sermon six miles long—you preach the gospel to all the residents and people you pass."

A farmer, whose cribs were full of corn, was accustomed to pray that the wants of the needy might be supplied; but when any one in needy circumstances asked for a little of his corn, he said he had none to spare. One day, after hearing his father pray for the poor and needy, his little son said to him: "Father, I wish I had your corn." "Why, my son, what would you do with it?" asked the father. The child replied, "I would answer your prayers."—Selected.

"How many are there ov ye's down there?" shouted an Irish overseer to some men in a coal pit. "Five," was the answer. "Well, then, the half ov ye's come up here," said he.

Some dispositions see everything on its darkest side. "Nice weather for corn," said a minister up the valley to one of his parishioners the other day. "Yes," said the old farmer, "but bad for grain and grass." A few days later they met again. "A fine rain we had yesterday," said the minister; "good for grass and grain." "Yes," was the reply, "but awful bad for corn!"

When Rowland Hill was paying his first visit to Scotland, he was carefully warned that his loose and random style of talking would not do among the hard-headed natives of that country, and that he must try and be a little more connected. Accordingly, when he first stood in a Scotch pulpit, he said he was to obey the warning, and that he would be very logical and very connected indeed. Having announced his text, he said: "First, I shall come up to the text; secondly, I shall go round about the text; thirdly, I shall go right through the text; and fourthly, I shall go quite away from the text." And if the story-teller be veracious, Rowland was most at home under the last head.

The Irishman had a correct appreciation of the business who being asked by the judge, when he applied for a license to sell whisky, if he was of a good moral character, replied, "Faith, yer honor, I don't see the necessity of a good moral character to sell whisky."

"Pray bestow your charity, young gentleman, on a poor blind man," said a beggar to a person passing by. "If you are blind, my good fellow, how did you know that I was young?" "Oh, sir, I made a mistake," said the beggar; "pray, give a trifle to a poor dumb man!"

THE REFORMED CHURCH.

As this is an Almanac prepared especially for the members of the Reformed Church in the United States, it is proper to give some account of it, the more especially as an unaccountable ignorance with reference to its past and present seems to prevail in some quarters.

ITS ORIGIN AND PAST HISTORY.

The great Reformation of the sixteenth century, which commenced in Central Europe, but gradually spread over the whole of that continent, divided into two great branches. First, the Lutheran Church, which spread over the greater portion of Germany, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, and a small portion of Eastern France. Second, the Reformed, which spread over Switzerland, part of Germany (especially the western portion), France, Holland, England, Scotland, Bohemia, and Hungary. It took its origin, as a specific Reformed Church, in Switzerland, where Ulric Zwingli commenced his labors in 1516 (one year before Martin Luther commenced in Germany).

The Swiss and Germans, both in Europe and America, form the "German Reformed Church." The Hollanders formed the "Reformed Church of Holland" (in this country now called the "Reformed Church of America"). The French formed the "Reformed Church of France." The Scotch and Irish formed the "Reformed Church of Scotland" (now known as the Presbyterian Church). The English formed the "Reformed Church of England and Ireland" (now generally known as the Episcopal Church). The Methodists, Baptists, etc., arose much later, generally from one of these Reformed Churches.

The Reformed Church thus has a most honorable history in Europe of over 350 years; and a history of over 120 years in America.

ITS NAME.

We contend, too, that it has a most honorable and appropriate title. It is the old Church, reformed of its abuses and superstitions. It is not named after a man (as the Lutheran), nor after a peculiar form of Church Government (as the Presbyterian, the Episcopal, the Congregational), nor after some peculiarity in rites, ceremonies and measures (as the Baptist and Methodist).

ITS GROWTH.

Its growth in the United States has been very rapid of late years. This can be proven very satisfactorily by an appeal to the United States Census Reports. From this source we have compiled the following tables. The Reformed Church has, in the years stated, the following:

	In 1850.	In 1860.	In 1870.
Church edifices.....	341	676	1,145
Sittings (or seats).....	160,932	273,697	431,700
Value church property.....	$993,780	2,422,670	5,775,215

Hence, in twenty years the edifices have increased 840, or 235 per cent.; the sittings have increased 270,786, or 168 per cent.; and their value has increased $4,781,435, or 481 per cent.

Comparing the Reformed Church now with the leading denominations, in this respect, we have the following remarkable result:

	Increase per cent. in twenty years.	In No. of edifices.	In sittings.	In value.
Reformed Church.....	235	168	481
Roman Catholic.....	211	199	559
Lutheran	125	81	412
Episcopal.....	80	54	221
Methodist	60	50	371
Dutch Reformed.....	40	25	152
Baptist.....	37	23	256
Presbyterian	18	6	229

It will be noticed that in the edifices the Reformed Church has increased most rapidly of all; in increase of sittings and value the Reformed Church has been surpassed by the Roman Catholic alone.

ITS ORGANIZATION.

Its Form of Government is Presbyterian, i. e., a succession of judicatories, each one of which is composed of ministers and elders.

1. The highest is the General Synod, which meets triennially.

2. Next, District Synods, of which there are six, viz: 1. The Eastern Synod, embracing Eastern Pennsylvania and adjacent States; 2. The Ohio Synod; 3. The Synod of the Northwest; 4. The Pittsburg Synod; 5. The Potomac Synod; and 6. The Eastern German Synod. These Synods were organized as follows:

The General Synod, at Pittsburg, November 19th, 1863.

The Eastern Synod, at Philadelphia, September 29th, 1747.

9th Mo. September, 1876. 30 Days.

THE TWO WESTERN SYNODS.

In our Almanac, for 1873, we gave a very full and carefully prepared account of the various institutions of the two Western Synods, and their histories, to which we must refer all readers. We will here give only a brief account of the most noteworthy in all parts of the Church.

SEMINARIES.

These are institutions where young men, who have had the necessary college training, are educated for the ministry. The course is from two to three years; tuition generally free.

1. The Theological Seminary, at Tiffin, Ohio. Chartered in 1831; has educated 155 ministers. The professors are Dr. J. H. Good and Dr. Herman Rust, either of whom, addressed at Tiffin, Ohio, will give any necessary information to students. Donations and legacies are solicited and may be in the name of the Treasurer, Dr. Isaac H. Reiter, Miamisburg, Ohio.

2. Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pennsylvania. It was organized March 11, 1825, with five students. It has three professors. Application can be made to its President, Dr. E. V. Gerhart, Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

3. The Mission House, in Wisconsin, which has sent out a large number of German ministers. It has three professors. All donations and applications may be sent to Rev. J. T. Kluge, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

4. Theological Department of Ursinus College, at Freeland, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. It now has three professors. All donations and applications may be sent to Dr. J. H. A. Bomberger, of Freeland.

5. Theological Department of Mercersburg College. All donations and applications can be made to its President, Dr. E. E. Higbee, Mercersburg, Pennsylvania.

COLLEGES.

1. Heidelberg College, at Tiffin, Ohio, named after a celebrated University in Germany; opened in 1850; chartered in 1851; has educated more than 3,100 students; has a faculty of seven professors. President, Dr. G. W. Williard, Tiffin, Ohio; General Agent, Henry Leonard, of Basil, Ohio. Educates young men and young ladies.

2. Ursinus College, at Freeland, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. Has seven professors. Address, Dr. J. H. A. Bomberger, President, Freeland, Pennsylvania.

3. Franklin and Marshall College, at Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Dr. J. W. Nevin, President.

4. Mercersburg College, at Mercersburg, Franklin County, Pennsylvania. Dr. E. E. Higbee, President.

OCTOBER.

Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. Matt. vii. 17.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

The object of these societies is to collect funds so as to aid new and feeble churches for a year or more, until they can become strong enough to support their own ministers, and afterward to assist in aiding others. We have the following:

1. The Ohio Board of Missions, located at Tiffin, Ohio. Dr. G. W. Williard, President, and Rev. L. H. Kefauver, Treasurer. The Board has now twenty stations under its care, several being in Kansas and Missouri, and one in Denver, Colorado. No better way of assisting in the establishment of Christ's kingdom can be found than to contribute liberally to its funds. Contributions can be sent to Tiffin, Ohio.
2. The Board of the Northwest, laboring mostly among the Germans. Address, Rev. D. Zimmerman, Treasurer, Galion, Ohio.
3. The Board of Ursinus Union, a vigorous and active new society, contributions to which should be sent to Dr. F. W. Kremer, Lebanon, Pennsylvania.
4. The Eastern Board, the Treasurer of which is W. H. Seibert, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.
5. Board of Foreign Missions. The Treasurer is T. J. Craig, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

EDUCATIONAL SOCIETIES.

The object of these societies is to seek out, encourage and educate young men for the ministry. It usually takes a course of from four to six years, or more, to fit them properly for this great work. These societies have been doing a most excellent work, and deserve liberal contributions.

1. The Board of the Ohio Synod. Address, Prof. R. Good, Tiffin, Ohio.
2. The Board of Ursinus Union. Address, Dr. F. W. Kremer, Lebanon, Pennsylvania.
3. The Board of the Eastern Synods. Address, Dr. S. R. Fisher, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

OTHER SOCIETIES.

1. Bethany Orphans' Home. Address, Rev. D. B. Albright, Womelsdorf, Berks County, Pennsylvania.
2. St. Paul's Orphans' Home. Address, Rev. J. B. Thompson, Butler, Pennsylvania.
3. Relief of Ministers and their Widows. Address, Dr. Theodore Appel, Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

GOD'S HEADQUARTERS.

"Why do we say in the Lord's Prayer, 'Who art in Heaven,' since God is everywhere?" asked a clergyman of some children.

For a while no one answered; at last seeing a little drummer-boy who looked as if he could give an answer, the clergyman said:

"Well, little soldier, what say you?"

"Because it's headquarters," replied the drummer

NOVEMBER.

But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor. Micah iv. 12.

ANECDOTES.

—Curious stories are told of blunders made by Oxford undergraduates in the Scripture examination, which, as a matter of form, they have to pass before taking their degrees. It is told of one that when asked who was the first King of Israel, he was so fortunate as to stumble upon the name of Saul. He saw that he had hit the mark, and wishing to show the examiners how intimate his knowledge of the Scriptures was he added, confidently, "Saul—also called Paul." Another was called upon to mention "the two instances recorded in Scriptures of the lower animals speaking." The undergraduate thought for a moment and replied—"Balaam's ass." "That is one, sir. What is the other?" Undergraduate paused in earnest thought. At last a gleam of recollection lit up his face as he replied,—"The whale! The whale said unto Jonah,—'Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian!'"—London National Reformer.

—An old Scotch lady was told that her minister used notes. She disbelieved it. Said one: "Go into the gallery and see." She did so, and saw the written sermon. After the luckless preacher had concluded his reading on the last page, he said: "But I will not enlarge." The old lady cried out from her lofty position, "Ye canna, ye canna, for your paper's give out."

—A witness in court who had been cautioned to give a precise answer to every question, and not to talk about what he might think the question meant, was interrogated as follows: "You drive a wagon?" "No, sir, I do not." "Why, sir, did you not tell my learned friend so this moment?" "No, sir, I did not." "Now, sir, I put it to you on your oath: Do you drive a wagon?" "No, sir." "What is your occupation, then?" "I drive a horse."

—The pioneer Methodist, Peter Cartwright, uttered many odd and witty sayings. He was often much annoyed at one sister, more noisy than pious, who would go off on a high key at every opportunity. At an animated class-meeting one day, she broke out with, "If I had one more feather in the wing of my faith, I could fly away and be with the Savior." "Stick in the feather, O Lord! and let her go," fervently responded Brother Cartwright.

—Franklin once said to a servant who was always late, but always ready with an excuse: "I have generally found that the man who is good at an excuse is good for nothing else."

LIVED IT DOWN.—An honest blacksmith was once grossly insulted, and his character infamously defamed. Friends advised him to seek redress by means of law, but to one and all he replied, "No; I will go to my forge, and there in six months I shall have worked out such a character, and earned such a name as all the judges, law courts, and lawyers in the world could never give me." He was right. It is by honest labor, manly courage, and a conscience void of offense, that we assert our true dignity, and prove our honesty and respectability.—Ex.

AN EPISCOPAL HORSE.—In one of his tours, Elder John Leland came up at night to a public house, where he was acquainted, and where he proposed to pass the night. The landlord met him with a smiling countenance, and told him that, having built a new barn, he was nicely prepared to accommodate the clergy. "I have," said he, "a very good stable, with all the improvements, for Episcopal horses, and a comfortable sort of stable for Presbyterian horses, while I keep the old barn for Baptist horses; the feed is according to the style of the stable." "Well," replied the Elder; "everybody knows that I am a Baptist, but my horse is an Episcopalian."

—A young theological student, not far from Boston, recently invited a young lady to attend a concert. The damsel's answer to the invitation was in this wise: "If you come as a 'temporary supply,' I must decline the invitation. I am only hearing 'regular candidates.'" He didn't supply.

—An inveterate drunkard once asked a Quaker whether he knew of a method whereby he could cure himself of his dominant vice. "Friend," answered Broadbrim, "it is as easy as keeping thine hand open." "How can that be?" said the drunkard. "Every man can keep his hand open; but as to abstaining from liquor, that's quite a different thing." "I will tell thee, friend," quoth the Quaker. "When thee has gotten a glass of gin in thine hand, and before thee dost raise the tempting liquor to thy lips, open thine hand—and keep it open. Thee breakest the glass, but thee breakest not the laws of sobriety."

—A New Yorker wrote to General Spinner, asking for his autograph, and a "sentiment," whereupon the veteran Treasurer wrote in reply: "You ask for my autograph, with a sentiment. My sentiment is this: 'When a gentleman writes another on his own business, he should inclose a postage stamp.'"

DECEMBER.

Now therefore let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee forever: for thou blessest, O Lord, and it shall be blessed forever. 1 Chron. xvii. 27.

WHERE HE GOT HIS AUTHORITY.—Smart lawyers sometimes get hold of a witness who turns the laugh on them. We have rarely seen a neater non sequitur than this: "I call now upon you," said the counselor. "to state distinctly upon what authority you are prepared to swear to the mare's age?" "Upon what authority?" said the hostler, interrogatively. "You are to reply, and not to repeat the question put to you." "I doesn't consider a man's bound to answer a question afore he's time to tura it in his mind." "Nothing can be more simple, sir, than the question put. I again repeat it. Upon what authority do you swear to the animal's age?" "The best authority," responded he, gruffly. "Then why such evasion? Why not state it at once?" "Well, then, if you must have it," "Must! I will have it!" vociferated the counselor, interrupting the witness. "Well, then, if you must and will have it," rejoined the hostler, with imperturbable gravity, "why, then, I had it myself from the mare's own mouth." A simultaneous burst of laughter rang through the court. The judge on the bench could with difficulty confine his risible muscles to judicial decorum.

SWEET HOME.

HOME of a winter's night, when the wind blows chill, the sky is overcast, and the ground is wet and freezing, is the pleasantest place on earth. No matter how homely the room, how scant of furniture, how cramped, how old, it's "home where the heart is." A good fire, a pleasant book, with two or three dear ones to listen, and work while they listen, is both sensible and comfortable. They are heart-comforts—real soul-reaching enjoyments, which no other condition affords. Let the wind howl, stir up the fire and read the louder. The world outside is of little consequence compared with the world inside. One is a world of pelf, the other of affection. Who cares for the wind? Draw around the little stand, and, amid the sewing on one side, and knitting on the other, contrive to stir up the elements of kindness. You will be delighted with the development. When reading palls, try conversation; and if that gives out, bring on the apples and hickory nuts. Ply yourselves with good cheer, and keep the fire in your stove and in your heart blazing in unison.

You can't begin to imagine, those of you who have never tried it, what a sovereign balm for mental ills an evening thus spent affords. If you are harassed with business, disappointed in your fellow-men, or suffering from any of the thousand vexations and cares that beset the pathway of the best of us, you will find a relief from it all in a home which you have made comfortable and happy. Let the wind howl then; why should you care who are thus blest?

PASSING BY.

"AND they told him that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by." O rich man, from your happy door;
Seeing the old, the sick, the poor,
Who ask for nothing, scarcely weep;
To whom even heaven means only sleep.
While you, given good things without measure,
Sometimes can hardly sleep for pleasure;
Let not the blessed moment fly,
Jesus of Nazareth passes by.

Is there a sinner, tired of sin,
Longing a new life to begin?
But all the gates of help are shut,
And all the words of love are mute;
Earth's best joys sere like burnt-up grass,
And even the very heavens as brass.
Turn not away so pitilessly,
Jesus of Nazareth passes by.

Self-hardened man, of smooth, bland smile,
Woman with heart like desert isle
Set in the sea of household love;
Whom nothing save "the world" can move;
At your white lie, your sneering speech,
Your backward thrust no sword can reach.
Look, your child lifts a wondering eye,
Jesus of Nazareth passes by.

Oh, all ye foolish ones, who feel
A sudden doubt like piercing steel,
When your dead hearts within you burn,
And conscience sighs, "return, return!"
Why let ye the sweet impulse fleet,
Love's wave wash back from your tired feet.
Knowing not him who came to-night,
Jesus of Nazareth passed by.

He must not pass—hold him secure!
In likeness of his helpless poor;
Of many a sick soul, sin beguiled,
In innocent face of little child.
Clasp him—quite certain it is he,
In every form of misery;
And when thou meet'st him up on high,
Be sure he will not pass thee by.

VALUABLE HINTS THAT HAVE STOOD THE TEST OF TIME.

FOR A BURN.—Cover the surface immediately with varnish, mucilage, flour or any substance that will effectually exclude the air from the injured parts. When this is done, the pain soon ceases and healthy action begins.

BRUISES.—Bathe the injured flesh as soon as possible in cold water; frequent application of a cold damp cloth will diminish the swelling and prevent discoloration.

POISON.—A convenient antidote will be found in a glass of water into which has been stirred a heaped teaspoonful each of salt and mustard—drink immediately. A repetition of the dose will empty the stomach, and the effects can be overcome by swallowing the whites of a couple of eggs and a cup of strong coffee.

MOTHS.—To prevent use camphor, Persian powder or benzine freely. Careful wrapping in paper or cotton cloths will secure clean woolens, but the moths will attack soiled spots.

BED-BUGS are destroyed by mercurial ointment or benzine. Coal-oil is destructive to many insects.

COCKROACHES disappear before a liberal sprinkling of powdered borax. Carbolic acid or coal-oil is certainly efficacious.

BLOOD STAINS.—Rub soap upon the spot and allow it to dry thoroughly; ordinary washing will afterward remove the stain.

TO CLEANSE HAIRBRUSHES.—Wash them in water in which has been dissolved a tablespoonful of spirits of hartshorn; a little soda in warm water serves the same purpose.

INK STAINS can readily be removed by soaking the spot in milk.

WHITE PAINT.—Scouring with fine sand and a rag does not injure the surface as much as scrubbing with a brush or the profuse use of soap which discolors it. Ammonia or soda in water is to be preferred to soap.

FRUIT STAINS.—Apply butter or lard to the spot, and without further trouble the stain will disappear during the ordinary washing. A little chloride of lime in water will remove many stains, but it must be used with care, and the article instantly and thoroughly rinsed in pure water.

CARBONATE OF AMMONIA dissolved in hot water can, when cool, be bottled for use. A few drops in warm water will easily remove finger marks from paint, cleanse glass, remove spots of grease and purify dark or damp corners, bath-tubs, water pitchers etc.

TO CHANGE THE AIR IN A ROOM, open the windows both at the bottom and top. When opposite windows will produce a current, a door closed and opened rapidly, or used as a fan is very efficacious; or build a fire in the fire-place.

TO WASH FLANNEL.—Wash in hot suds and rinse in clean hot water.

TO COLOR FLOORS WALNUT TINT.—Apply with

paint brush or piece of rag raw linseed oil mixed with burnt umber. When dry, apply a coat of boiled linseed oil without color. The quantity of umber depends upon the wood, some requiring much more color to make a given tint. A small quantity of the mixture well rubbed in has the best effect and dries soonest.

TO WASH WINDOWS.—Spread a coating of water and whiting; when dry, rub off with paper or old silk rag. This method is especially convenient where splashing should be avoided, or in cold weather. Silver can be polished in the same manner with prepared chalk.

COLORS FADED BY ACIDS will return by the application of hartshorn and water.

A SICK ROOM can be deodorized speedily and easily by burning a wisp of paper, or by sprinkling some sugar, molasses or ground coffee upon a shovel of hot coals.

THE FISHERMAN.

HERE is the allegorical and symbolical picture of Elder Henry Leonard, the so-called Fisherman.

Mr. Leonard has now been at work for over eighteen years collecting funds mainly for Heidelberg College and the Theological Seminary. In his labors for the Church he has now traveled sixty-eight thousand one hundred and thirty miles, and yet he is not tired, and still as welcome as ever to the firesides of Reformed families.

THE OLDEST MINISTERS.

THERE are some interesting facts connected with the oldest ministers in the Reformed Church.

Rev. N. P. Hacke, D. D., of Greensburg, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, was ordained in 1819, and has remained pastor of the same charge to this day, a period of fifty-seven years.

At the Synod of Wooster, in June, 1874, two ministers, who had been ordained just fifty years before, were present, namely: Rev. D. Winters, D. D., of Dayton, Ohio, and Rev. John Pence, of Tremont, Ohio. The former was elected President, and the latter Vice-President of the Synod. A very appropriate act for the semi-centennial of the Ohio Synod.

DEATHS IN THE MINISTRY.

THERE have been more deaths in the ministry of the Reformed Church during the past year than in any year of the history of our Church. The record will be found in a table in this Almanac. They number thirteen. The average age of the deceased brethren was sixty-seven and one-half years, which is certainly a good old age. This again confirms the fact that ministers, as a class, are a long-lived race, beyond that of any class of professional men, we think.

It also reminds us of the fact that the fathers of the Church are rapidly passing, and that, as a Church, we should use every exertion to fill up the ranks of the army that proclaims the tidings of "Peace on earth, good will to men." Young man, is it not your duty and privilege to devote yourself to this calling?

THE REFORMED CHURCH IN LEHIGH AND BERKS COUNTIES, PENNSYLVANIA.

THE early German emigrants nearly all landed at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and sought homes in the wild lands toward the North. In consequence of this the Reformed Church is especially strong in numbers in Berks and Lehigh Counties.

In Lehigh County we have 27 charges, which embrace 67 congregations, supplied by 23 ministers. These embrace 13,540 members, and over 11,000 baptized members, making 24,500 members of the Reformed Church. These must represent a population of at least 28,000 persons. As the population of the county, according to the census of 1870, was 56,000, this indicates that the Reformed make up one-half of the population. In the last Synodical year over 1,000 members were received, and 1,365 children were baptized.

In Berks County we have 68 congregations, most of them strong in numbers and in wealth.

THEN AND NOW.

FROM 1754 to 1876.

In the "Pennsylvania Archives" there is found a letter from the Reformed ministers, written in the year 1754 (one hundred and twenty-two years ago), and addressed to the Governor of the State, in which they seek to place themselves in a proper light before Governor Morris. From this it appears that then there were only twelve Reformed ministers in the State. The list, with their location, is very interesting, and we therefore give it in full, as follows:

John Waldsmith,	-	-	Cocalico.
Theodore Frankenfeld,	-	-	Fredericktown.
Jonathan Du Bois,	-	-	Northampton.
Conrad Templeman,	-	-	Swatara.
Conrad Steiner,	-	-	Germantown.
Michael Schlatter,	-	-	Philadelphia.
John Bartholomy Rieger,	-	-	Lancaster.
Geo. Michael Weisz,	-	-	Goshenhoppen.
John Philip Leydich,	-	-	New Hanover.
Jacob Lischy,	-	-	Yorktown.
P. W. Otterbein,	-	-	Lancaster.
Henry Wm. Stay,	-	-	Tulpehocken.

In one hundred and twenty-two years the number of ministers has grown from twelve to six hundred and forty—certainly a very encouraging progress. Let us sustain our institutions of learning liberally, so that this number may be still more largely increased in the future.

It is only fifty years since the Eastern Seminary was started, and only twenty-five years since the seminary at Tiffin was opened, and yet in that time five hundred and eighty-four students have been prepared for the ministry by the different seminaries, of whom a number, however, have deceased. We estimate the number from the different seminaries about as follows:

Eastern Theological Seminary,	-	-	319
Tiffin Theological Seminary,	-	-	155
Sheboygan Mission House,	-	-	100
Ursinus Seminary,	-	-	5
Mercersburg Theological Department,	-	-	5

* The Synod of Ohio was organized in 1824, and by an arrangement adopted in 1839, divided its territory into three District Synods, and constituted itself a General Synod to meet every three years. Hence it held no meetings in 1840 and 1841, but the District Synods, meeting annually, did. This whole arrangement was abolished in 1842, and the system of dividing the Synod into Classes was adopted, and continued to the present time.

† Special meetings of Synod.

‡ The official title of Stated Clerk was that of Secretary, until 1844, when it was changed to that of State Clerk.

The above Statistics, including the Ohio Synod and the Northwestern Synod (organized out of the Ohio Synod, in 1867), though carefully prepared, may be deficient in some particulars, but sufficiently approximate the truth to be relied upon for all practical purposes. The decrease of members in 1870, as exhibited in the column of "Total Members," is owing to the fact of the dismission of the Westmoreland Classis to the Pittsburg Synod. It will be seen that the growth of the Reformed Church in the West has been of a gradual and permanent character, and while her present condition presents many aspects of encouragement, the future is full of hope and promise.

REFORMED CHURCH ALMANAC.

Contributions to Benevolent Purposes by the Reformed Church.

The following table presents the gross sums reported as contributed to benevolent purposes, in the different Synods of the Reformed Church, during the past nine years. It is however proper to remark that the actual amounts contributed are doubtless much larger—probably fifty per cent. more than is contained in the Synodical Reports.

YEAR.	EASTERN SYNOD.	OHIO SYNOD.	NORTHWESTERN SYNOD.	PITTSBURG SYNOD.	POTOMAC SYNOD.	EASTERN GERMAN.

NOTE.—The Northwestern Synod was formed in 1867, out of a portion of the Ohio Synod. The Pittsburg Synod was formed in 1870, partly from Classes belonging to the Eastern, and partly from Classes belonging to the Ohio Synod. This explains some apparent diminutions in the amount of benevolent contributions.

THE REFORMED CHURCHES IN THE WORLD.

DR. McCOSH, President of Princeton College, has taken great pains to bring about a confederation of all the Reformed or Presbyterian bodies in America or Europe. The prospect of a successful issue is quite fair. The first meeting is to be held in London, in the summer of 1876. In his investigation he has come to the following result as to the number of members in the various churches. We print the table because it is interesting, and will be useful for future reference:

Alphabetical Register of the Ministers of the Reformed Church IN THE UNITED STATES—1876.

[NOTE.—In order to render this register of more value, we here give not only the name and post-office address, but also the year of ordination and the number of years that each one has been in the ministry. The preparation of this list has involved an immense amount of labor, but we believe all our readers will appreciate it. We have aimed to make it as accurate as possible, but doubtless a number of errors will be discovered in it. These can be corrected in future editions. Those officiating in the German language, or both German and English, are marked with a *.]

THE preceding column contains the advertisement of that remarkable book, entitled the Secrets of the Convent and Confessional.

It is a story of American life, based upon facts of recent occurrence, in our own country. Its object is to show what the Church of Rome is now doing here in free America.

Written in narrative form, the characters, scenes and incidents of the story seem to be the product of a highly wrought romance; yet astounding as they may seem, they are but reproduced from real life.
The author is well known as one of the most brilliant and powerful writers in the land. She has given the subject long and patient investigation, and here presents it in the light of well-authenticated facts in her possession.

As a discussion of the doctrines and practices of Rome, it is free from bitterness, and written in the spirit of the broadest Christian charity. Rome condemns herself, and here speaks her own words, acts her own acts. The monstrous doctrines enunciated are cited from her own books, which she holds in highest authority, but which she keeps securely hidden from the majority even of her own subjects. The main incidents of the narrative are true, and find a parallel in facts well authenticated, which are given in the appendix.

As a story, it is not too much to say that in brilliant delineation of character, and powerful grouping of incidents, it has few rivals in modern literature. That its tragedy is that of actual life, is but proof of the adage that "truth is indeed stranger than fiction."

The interest and sympathy of the reader are taken captive, and with quickened pulse he follows on from chapter to chapter unto the end. Of the many thousand who will read this book, we venture to say that few, having once begun it, will lay it aside until it is finished.

A PAINT THAT WILL STAY PUT.

August 28, 1875.

EDS. RURAL NEW-YORKER:—It is a great object for farmers and other people in the country to get a paint that is both handsome and durable. I have used and seen used a good deal of the Rubber Paint made at Cleveland, Ohio, and I know it to answer the above requirements, both for buildings and for farm implements. I never used a paint so good as this for wagons, mowing machines etc., that must lie exposed to the weather. The following letter is from a reliable farmer of Mayfield, near Cleveland, in which I can concur:

S. D. H.

You ask me in regard to the Rubber Paint manufactured by the Rubber Paint Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, and in reply I would say I first began using it some six years ago, when I painted my house with it, and to-day it is as firm, smooth and glossy as the day it was put on. Since that time I have both used it and seen it used considerably, and my faith in it is such that I shall order more when I go to Cleveland next week. From the numerous tests I have seen it pass through, I have no hesitation in saying it is superior in firmness, durability and economy, and has no equal. I therefore advise all my friends who desire a first-class paint to procure the Rubber Paint.
